

Switching to a MEFCU checking account is:

- a) a piece of cake
- b) easy as pie
- c) a cinch, regardless of your pastry preference

Switching checking accounts from one institution to another is a hassle for lots of folks. Not so for anyone eligible for a MEFCU checking account. Any MEFCU member can switch to MEFCU checking in the four easy steps listed below.

Not a member yet? We'd love to have you join us. That won't take long either. Click on the Join MEFCU tab and sign up today!

How to switch to MEFCU checking

1. Choose either Free Checking or Regular Checking and fill out the Checking Application. If you're not a MEFCU member, you will need to fill out a Membership Application to sign up for the checking account of your choice by clicking on the Join MEFCU tab.
2. Move Direct Deposit to your new MEFCU account using the Direct Deposit Request form.
3. Notify any companies or financial institutions that process automatic payments for you. They'll need your new MEFCU checking account information to process your payments on time.
4. Close your old account once all outstanding checks and withdrawals have been cleared and your new MEFCU accounts are open.

MEFCU members get more for their money

As a Marriott Employees' Federal Credit Union member, you're eligible for either MEFCU Free Checking with Direct Deposit or Regular Checking. Plus, you enjoy many other benefits, including Online Banking, MET Telephone Banking, FREE online Bill Pay, access to over 70,000 surcharge-FREE and fee-FREE ATMs, FREE deposits at over 9,000 Shared Branch locations and unlimited check writing.